Former President of India

28 December 2007

Message

I am happy to note that the 5th Anniversary of 'Nithyananda Dhyanapeetam' of His Holiness Swami Paramahansa Nityananda is being celebrated on 30 December 2007. Creating a peaceful environment in the society by making the citizens spiritually aware is an important societal mission, which I understand is being performed by 'Dhyanapeetam' Ashram in 33 countries across the world. I am sure with the focused mission of the Peetam it will spread to many more countries in the years to come. I am also happy to know that as a part of the anniversary celebrations Gnana Dan, Aushad Dan and Anna Dan programmes are being launched.

My respects to Swami Paramahansa Nityananda and best wishes to all the participants for success in their mission of working towards a prosperous and peaceful planet earth. My New Year greetings to all the participants.

Message from Former President of India, Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam to The Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism Paramahansa Nithyananda

Former President of India, Late APJ Abdul Kalam said thus to The Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism Paramahamsa Nithyananda during a meeting in Delhi, North India, when The Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism presented him with a flagship book He had recently published:

"Swamiji, it is such a joy to experience your blissful smile. When we were children we lived blissfully, smiled a lot, and we were happy and fulfilled. But as we grow we lose our smile. Yet when I see you, I see you carry and radiate such a divine bliss. If I could ask you for something Swamiji, I would request you to spread the same bliss that you carry inside you to the entire world. If you could do that, I would be very happy."
